SUITS, OVERCOATS, ULSTERS OF GENTS' FURNISHINGS

You can't find better goods at so small figures as we are making by this big purchase of ours.

The garments are of the best make, stylish cut, and their wearing qualities we vouch for. Let us clothe you just once, if we don't already, for we want you to see how satisfactorially we can do it, both as to the clothing you get and the prices you pay. We want to quote you a few prices:

orline carling Men's All Wool Brown Suits at $5,50 worth $10. Men's All Wool Blue Suits, $5 50 worth $10. Men's Overcoats, $5 worth $7 50. Men's All Wool Overcoats, $8.50 worth $12. Men's All wool Overcoats, $10 worth $15: Boys' Reefers from 3 years up, $2, $2.50, $3.50 and Boys' Suits, $1 98, $2.50, $3, $3,50, $4.50 and $5 Boys' All Wool Sweaters, all colors, 98c. Boys' All Wool Turtle Neck Sweaters 1'48. Mon's Sweaters 98c, $1 50, $2, $2 50 and $3.50

Closed job of White Shirts, Colored Bosoms at 48c worth White Shirts 48c, 75c and 98c. Oil Tan Knit top Gloves at 25c and 48c. Nice dress Dog Skin Gloves 48c to $1 25. Best makes Collars 2 for 25c. Cuffs 13c pair, 2 for 25c. Great value in Quilted Burlap Stable Blankets at 75c.

Street Blankets $1 25, $2, $2 50, $3 50, $3.98 and $4

Men's Knit Jackets 98c, $1.50, $2, $2.50 and $3.

317 MAIN ST., BRIDGEPORT,

OPERATORS OF 27 STORES.

THE NEWTOWN BEE. NEWTOWN, FRIDAY, DEC. 25.

The Home Circle.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

For bonuties was are then receiving Doth term the spirit's wholesome food All giving thanks to their Creator

Dots prove their origin divise. "Thus, 606r that to Mather Salure," Rich geme possess from Heaven's mine Bottle dear mouved server at call Thank-giving brines these ones together Within some home's tankible wall.

in V Aist a resident weathings to low bischurch nellevers. When pastors in their sermons told with the work was the sermons told the sermons the sermons told the sermo Are these among the things of old: Tis not to enting turkeys publings timit Junia ka which Thanksgiving doth gonds If this is all what have say raissed Tis in the heart should be thanksgiving.

suer a cour of the same thereting that it stows out on Whiters the grates to run as then Dorothy Deal's Good Courage.

THOTHOUR

CHRISTMAS IN OLD CONNECTICUT. an associa & a man we wanted that Atlanta

YORK MAIL AND EXPRESS. LILVE You I Good Rye

so that upon the morning of the 25th of some 60 yards away from the store; and dinian Decumber, 1663, the broad common of there the young man Samuel, met her Guilford town in the Connecticut colony, He had seen her as sine came from the was hidden by it, and as far as the eye store, and, although her head was we could sen the thick blacket had been hooded, yet the foung man knew her a embroken except by trees and houses, well as if he saw herayes, that always that morning, looking through the forced them to break a path from th might discover whether the storm was to she place where he met her!"

the sunthat were breasing through mr matter, and so ewer to you appear be even worse for you."

Attenta a the clouds fell upon them, and when this nicebing my D worsey, that I wish. "Lapeak the truth always or I and over that were bright beginner of "I will knower welcher of your ques health and exercise; put a huge tog upon alone, Master Samuel. Are you not con-the driplace, and having brushed the tent to have me here? Come put me on anow from his arms went to Abner, that the sledge, to f must be back to Mr. he might receive his master's commandal lieste's attonces the art " The magistrate will come by noon, I The young min put his strong arms think, for the atorm is over. Samuel, gently boat her and lifted her to the wish you a merry Christmas. You must break a way through the stodie, where she stamped the snow "Yes. I said those words."

The stodies words to be a way through the from her feet, and them, with an arm "Well, who bade you a merry than the bade you a merry control with the stamped the snow "Well, who bade you a merry than the transfer of the stamped the snow "Yes."

ing received this command, Sam. by her elde."

miles to New made me forget my purpose.

acros the common. At last he said: Christmas? What is that?"

patant withdrawn, to be sgain put ou a little further. At last the door we Each day our sentine sour be Themeskiving, opened water and there stepped out int as constructed of the Fath r. 66-1. was well wrapped and she walked with > "That is Dorothy," said Mothe Allaj a strange prefermance, "said An from the governor's store at this earl white when the wen have not all gone t > break the road ?" "She has a bundle under har clock! Khow that D'Fothe was a meter etten son to be fond of frivolous things, but I, di por think that she was ely, an wild the

"To be kly media decent; that is some Thing that must be punished. Ah, then is Samuel with the oxen. He breakothy, and wm, Ewow, mop and speak t her, for I have surmised mother, that he likes that maid too well " "He does husband "

usio long asshesis my apprenting at the forge and anvil he shall woo no maid least of all this orphan, who, I" great! teur, with her soft whys, does cause ou governor to relax his duty at times. He "gen perhated her to wear a brook ONE OF THE MANY LEGENDS OF THE line the maid to day. Truly I will sum REGICIDES-E. J. EDWARDS IN NEW monher before the magistrale. [] not; I will, Sec. Samuel is speaking with her.

The girl had gone through the sno s A heavy snow had fallen in the pight, until she was near the meeting-house, Abner Alling, a stern man of authority, bestowed upou him's smile. He turned stoot at the window of his kitchen on the osens and with gouch gooding little panes of wrinkled glass, that he governor's hause, where the girl lived.

was several HWhy, Master Samuel?" "Although a few flakes fluttered in the "Why? You know well why. You air yet they began to gilsten as the rays know what is to happen the day I am Abners perceived that the day would it was to day, for I have your promise soon be fine he called, saying: "Samuel! to wed us on that day." Now tell me. Samuel! Hear me!" how it is that you are out so early, and the showly young man of rosy cheeks, what is that under your clock?

he stubborbed oxed, for the steers are thrown around a stake, she held se- mas this day?" t yet heavy enough for such a snow curry on, while Samuel started the gistrate will not come half curions, Sta would not answer thunder tone. I when he sake half the blesses and her blessed, because it will he wal . He looked at her perplexed, wonder you say? beard these words before, and he knew wrate that no our in the town had ever re-

"What do you mean by that? Wha that gave him interest, looked thrently thing is that you wish me-a merry and here the magistrate held court, deputies consulted together. Then the seas it is the habit of the people to bring her: "You have heard these accusa- The door opened and there entered some t to mind by saying as they meet. "I tions. Do you deny them?"

breast the gate of the governor's house. its lifted her from the sledge and her gently down upon the decretep. An hour after Samuel returned to hit Is put on his leather apron, rolled, his punishment may warn others and cone at the forge, and a moment later the bout? Tell me. Did she tell you why ment is needed I will bare my she went out into the snow so early?" "She did not. I asked her, but she he said, rould not tell." "On! there is some mystery. The magistrate.

"The paths are broken."

ould is deceltful." ful; a lig was never on her lips."

wish you a merry Ceristmas? She said so strange a sight as this, so they con-

"Oh, she said that?" What heavenly for the young man. Pay no heed to her words."

when, looking up, she met the awful uplisted with admonitory gestures and hear him speak.

"Lie not to me," said he, "for it will of any man whom they had ever seen a And it was as the governor had orderbot at all," she said gently. "Then you will not deny that y were at the store this morning?

"I cannot say," You will say. Why hore?" "I cannot tell." "You said these words to Samuel,

"What had you under your cloak?

I'No Dwill got deny that."

wish you a merry Christmas.1.21

but her tones, were firm, and when he were has this day served Him hood HEAS SELINGIES, HEEMUL caw that she would not reply he went ... When the magistrate and the deputies FUVILIE has away, and at noon the magistrate had heard these words, they spoke with coper a no

They came for Dorothy and led her to they lifted their eyes again the old short and the building whence she came so can had gone as allently and mysteriously as tiously in the morning. Here was the he came.

"It is Christmas day, Samuel," said convicted of offenses, and among these girl and execute the sentence, but as he sorn, and in the countries across the that was finished the magistrate said to like the coming of borses was heard.

e-oh what have I said! Pay no heed had said to you, I wish you a merry Charles I to be beheaded, lie concealed.

berplexed. They had now come trate, therefore, looking sternly at her guitty of a lie and deceit, You will be himself. nome, having broken his share of paths. the pillory for one hour, that your of them was here an hour ago " ousic of the sacil revealed his energy words. She put out her hand as if for and asked for she ter. As I had not then the Abner went to him at lower and recover him. You spoke too long with the seemed not to know it. It was them, I premitted them to the in the the maid, Samuel. I bade you go and Samuel who had taken her hand, and be cellar beneath this room. For, though I hear the sentence. the lash and sit in the stocks for her,

"Nay, master, Dorothy is not deceitthat this maid shall not be whipped and it, a lig was never on her lips."
I will accuse her before the magisrate, and when the governor returns

Then, let me say here before you and the snow, and they are now rapidly sailing in a vessel on Long Island Sound.

What do you here, Dorothy?"
man threw his arm around the girl and They have sentenced me to the lash, rate, and when the governor returns man threw his arm around the girl and s some mystery. Tell me, master, what Now, the magistrate and deputies were does it mean when any person says. I amazed, for they had never before seen a heavenly minded man had told her solted with each other what they should unded man? She is deceiving you, But when they looked up to pronounce Then Abuer went away and with stood before them a man of strapge apnighty strides crossed the common, and passance. His beard was as while as the shall henceforth be not my maid,

At this moment there entered the His dress was concealed by a long clock. ner was solemn, and not like the manner was a child in England."

faith against such adversaries as you and Dorothy have became men of auproud magistrate; lift ao arm of punishment against this child; for as truly as God reads all hearts be reads in here as The greaters of this paners with beoplessed sinless a record as mortals can ever the bear that there is at least one drunded discuss that science has been able to care in all God reads all hearts be reads in here, as make. The judgment of God be upon "Well, who bade you a merry Christ you if you permit wrang to be done this curely on while Samuel started the "I example of the second of the special started the "I example of the second of the special way and mining, and was the door a moment ago? he saked out mean to say an much, but I lie not."

She knew that 'he was half jesting. "Who?" This word was attered in "Odd's set year, and I knew that 'he was half jesting. "Who?" This word was utbered in "Cod's servant, and V say that this mrs. send for list of testimonials.

"Mathar effer v to to cany case that it falls to mrs. send for list of testimonials.

"Mathar effer v to to cany case that it falls to mrs. send for list of testimonials.

"Mathar effer v to to cany case that it falls to mrs. send for list of testimonials."

"Mathar effer v to come to come the control of the control of another for some mo ments, and when office as well as the store of Gov Leete, For an hour the magistrate and the

There were two or three who had been constable was commanded to take the condemned Abner placed the sweet-approached her Samuel put her behind The magistrate listened to the accusa- terrible, and the constable knew the tions that Abner made, that she was de- strength of his arm, so they stood silently ceitful and had spoken lies, and when thoug one another. Suddenly a noise of the king's officers, and with them the "In that I have said or done evil know- governor of the colony, Mr Leete. ingly I do; otherwise it has begin as he "In his majesty's name; if you know "Did you say a heavenly minded man Goffe, two of the judges who caused

'He jace, for if we rejoice in the death of | "The regiones!" said the magistrate,

'Had one a venerable beard? "Aye. William Goffe." Twas he, Cromwell's general," said "There is no doubt of it." You are the magistrate, as though speaking to taken hence, and you, will first receive "Twas be," said the deputies solemn to lashes, and after that will be put into Ty. Then Abner said to the officer, "Que "But it here no longer," said Gov Leete, speaking for the first time. The girl seemed not to hear these These men came to me many days ago eak paths, not to chatter with a frivol-tood by her side. His face was white, am loval to the king, I and my people us young woman."

He had come think the from the time to honor Cromwell and his lieutenant. What did you gad with the maid thet me take her place. If punish Laken them food, and she and I alone knew of their presence. I charged her to tell no man. But when the king "No. Samuel," thus Dorothy spoke. the flicers here. Yet I am glad to say magistrate. Your coming, but not by me, they have nome I will narrate this thing she has held her in a firm embrace. "Do you master, because I kept, my promise to lone."

wish to kill her? For if she is windped you, and I was this heavenly minded man it will kill her, and if her me."

"There is no evil, I am sure; but there words, 'I wish you a mercy Christmas," !

"To the lash?" 'Yes master." "And were about to administer it?" do, and they fixed upon a punishment. But for Samuel they would already have whipped me.

"God be praised that this maid would much, and we will know the truth of sentence on him they saw another sight have suffered the lash rather than bewhich amazed them even more; for there tray glass her word as these persecuted and righteons men, Gone and Whalley. having entered the house of Gov Leese the snow and long, like that of a proph but my daughter," said the governor, demanded that Dorothy be summoned. et. His hair fell upon his shoulders. embracing the girl. Then turning to the magnifiate he said: "I will remit her sentence, and because it is indeed Christwish whom she was making merry, but head of the muid, while the other was mas day I wall remark the sentences of all giance with which Den Abner received When he spoke his voice was soft, but merry. It shall be made a merry Christher she tattered and stood waiting to like he who has suthofits, and its hister has for all as I used to know it when I > gan. "If there be evil done Edid it from through Derothy Deal's suffering and I taught her this merning that for all peril there began in that colony the habit. who love our Lord this is the day that as to other lands, of merry making and commemorates. His birth. To that good cheer upon that Christmas day, the prophecy of the regicide Goffe I trust, shall go, for T have kept the wantelfilled. The children of Samuel

> > A 100 REWARD $100 tional disease, requires a densitution treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken

DASSI

CASTORIA

Of ready-for-wear clothing continues.

SUCH ULSTERS

As we can sell you for $6 are rare in retailing history. Splendid garments at this price, well-made and trimmed. The Kersey Overcoats we can sell at 7.50 ought to bring $10. Splendid cloth from a New York mill, made and trimmed right. Ulsters at 7.50 in Frieze. The $10 kind. Worombe Beavers, O'Brien Brothers' Irish Friezes and Chinchillas in fine Overcoats and Ulsters at $10. Made with fine body linings and ironwear sleeve linings. Ought to be $15. The maker stands the difference. At $15, the finest Royal Kersey Overcoats of the year. Plain or Tap seams, clay weave or satin body linings. The Irish Frieze or Chinchilla Ulsters at this price are all wool, made extra long deep collars, good warm practical linings.

We supplement the new purchase by adding a number of odd sizes from lines already here-all new goods and made for the season's trade. Lines will run out you know, and odd sizes must be sold at some price. So we've taken the $18 Overcoats, odd sizes, and put them over on the $15 tables, along a few $20 odd sizes. A few blue and black Kerseys, that were $25 and $28 are on the $20 table, odd sized men have the best of it

AND THE BOYS---

They're in the new purchase too. We got hold of three lots of boys' short pant suits-manufacturer's samples—made to sell for $3 and $3.50, we sell for $2. Another lot of Fine Cassimeres and Cheviots, to be sold at $5-our price is 3.00. Bring the boys in. And Boys' Ulsters too. For boys from 8 to 18 years, dark brown Chinchillas, Canada Grays and smooth Cassimeres,, warm and heavy with deep collars and extra length, at just half price, 3.00 and 4.00.

We are not given to boasting, the clothes we sell do most of our talking for us, but these goods we have here now are really worth talking out loud about. " Every piece of cold weather clothing here is a genuine bargain and our guarantee of "Your money back if you want it" makes buying as safe and as sure as it can be made. We will have extra clerks here to wait on you, we will make buying as easy as the prices. Open now until January 1.

USEFUL HOLIDAY GIFTS FOR MEN.

Mackintoshes, Bath Robes, Smoking Jackets, Fancy vests Cardigan Jackets, Sweaters, Leather Coats, Underwear, Suspenders, Initial Handkerchiefs, Mufflers, Full Dress Shirt Shields, Golf Goods, Winter Caps, Dent's Gloves, Heavy Lined Gloves, Fur Gloves. Everything in fact you would expect to find for a man's wear in a man's complete outfitting establishment, is here.

Open Monday, Friday and Saturday Evenings. Juri 9